TYPE METAL.

The following Medals are I believe very uncommon.

- | | | | |
|------|-----|--|----|
| 3. — | 575 | "Societas Alumnorum Scholae Dummerensis." Head wearing a wig looking left. Rev. "Ferat pulmam qui mernit" around a wreath. Very good | 28 |
| 3. — | 576 | Same legend as preceding, but instead of a head there is the building of a School-House; underneath "in 1822." Rev. "Crede te posse et potes." Believe you are able and you will be. No wreath. Very good | 24 |

As far as I have been able to learn these Medals take their name from Fort Dummer, which place has many schools, and not far from Dummerston, Windham Co., Vermont.

| 8. — | 588 | 1797 An exact mate to the best 1797. Very desirable | |
| 5. — | 589 | 1797 Similar to last. Fine, but not equal to preceding lot | |

- 6.25 590 1798 A fine impression. Almost uncirculated 18.- 591 1799 A very excellent impression; much better than generally offered, but the head rubbed. Very rare 4.50 592 1799 Very poor, but original 2.13 593 1800 Very good impression over 1799. Scarce 75 594 1801 Fair impression
 4.25 595 1802 Very fine. Barely circulated 25 596 1802 Another; a variety. Fair
 3.25 597 1803 Very fine. Barely circulated 35 598 1803 Another. Good 17.- 599 1804 Head a little rubbed, one of the best specimens that has been offered for some time. Very scarce.
 Broken die
 9.75 600 1804 Perfect die, more rubbed, but still fine for date, and rare
 5.25 601 1804 Another; broken die. Poor, but scarce 30 602 1805 Fair for date, but black 4.- 603 1806 Head rubbed, otherwise a fine impression. Seldom found better 6.- 604 1806 This is very nearly uncirculated, and one of the best impressions that I remember to have been sold at auction for some years, and very rare in this condition 4.50 605 1807 An unusually good impression, but not quite uncirculated 4.- 606 1808 Very good for this rare date, but rubbed a little

 1.- 611 1811 Another; poor, but scarce
 2.- 612 1812 Very good. A little rubbed 3.- 613 1813 A fine Cent. Stars a little rubbed. Rather desirable 5.- 614 1814 Uncirculated impression 30 615 1816 Very fine and I believe uncirculated, as the stars are rubbed a little to the left, as many of this cent, from the wearing of the die. Broken die
